Bibi Ha Bibi: A mucho mucho macho man show!

Dance

The artists and choreographers Aloun Marchal (France) and Henrique Furtado (Portugal) presents a heavy breathing show that combines a very wide spectra of manliness – with everything between rituals and wrestling.

Centre stage, face to face, dressed in tight spandex - a battle of bellows will take place. Bibi Ha Bibi will explore sound and movement that constantly will collide: martial arts with childish games, brawls with lullabies and deep breaths with animal-like roars. The battle will take place both on the inside as well as on the outside, and as the show goes on, the movements will become even more alien, the roars will claw deeper and the voices, faces, laughs and cries will soon become a wonderful mess. Everything will be challenged when the “pas de deux” turns violence to sensuality. Marchal and Furtado has both worked in many different shows in France, Portugal and Sweden and Bibi Ha Bibi is their first show together.

Gothenburg English Studio Theatre presents the hilarious and deeply moving international hit Every Brilliant Thing by Duncan Macmillan with Jonny Donahoe
Performed by Gary Whitaker. Opens at November 9th. Every Brilliant Thing by Duncan Macmillan is a touching, funny and life-affirming play about depression and the lengths we will go to for those we love.

"You're seven years old. Mum's in hospital.

Dad says she's 'done something stupid'.

She finds it hard to be happy. You start to make a list of everything that's brilliant about the world:

1. Ice cream
2. Water fight
3. People falling over
4. Rollercoasters
5. Laughing so hard you shoot milk through your nose

As the boy grows into a man the list evolves too. Over 30 years and thousands of entries later, he discovers that the list might even help save himself.
